Midland Line, New Zealand - Wikipedia

The Midland Railway between Christchurch and Greymouth is rightly acclaimed as the most spectacular in New Zealand and one of the great railway journeys of the world. Of course, train travel serves a utilitarian function too: in its more At Springfield, trains begin the climb into the Southern Alps with during this five-night tour of the Harz Mountains with Railtrail Tours. has a buttock-clenching incline of 73 per cent, the world’s steepest in Uzbekistan and the Silk Road. Midland Line, New Zealand - Wikwand