The Cambridge Introduction To Samuel Taylor Coleridge

John Worthen

Financial problems, however, drove him from Cambridge, and in his third year he interrupted his education and traveled to London. Samuel Taylor Coleridge, British poet and critic, was the co-author with Wordsworth of Lyrical Ballads in 1798, the author of The Rime of the Ancient Mariner, Kubla Khan, and Christabel.